Whether you need 15 or 200 of an item, Fieldhouse is your source for quality products at low prices. We can source almost any product at a competitive price, from water bottles and t-shirts to clip boards and football uniforms. Fieldhouse works with over 3,000 wholesalers, has access to over 500,000 products, and supplies thousands of organizations across the country with merchandise.

To request a bulk quote, you can contact us by phone, email or send a request from your store. To send a request from your store, select and design your product, click the "Request Bulk Pricing" button before checkout, and complete the short questionnaire.

The Fieldhouse team will work with you to arrange details such as artwork, shipment and payment. Once your order is finalized it typically takes 10 business days to produce your items. Rush orders may be available for an additional charge.

To request a bulk quote, visit your online store and click on "Bulk" or contact Fieldhouse customer service.
